

Elderly (62+) Project-Based Voucher Waiting List FAQs

What is the Housing Choice Voucher Program?

The HADC's Housing Choice Voucher Program, commonly known as Section 8, is a federal program that provides rental assistance to eligible low-income households through tenant-based and project-based vouchers.

Is the Housing Choice Voucher Program Waiting List open?

HADC Housing Choice Voucher Tenant-Based and Project-Based Waiting Lists are closed to new applicants. HADC opened our "Elderly" (62+) Project-Based Housing Choice Voucher (PBV) Waiting List for online pre-applications beginning Tuesday, September 29, 2015. As of March 31, 2018, HADC Elderly PBV Community Options with the exception of Columbia at Avondale Senior Property will be CLOSED.

What is a Project-Based Voucher (PBV)?

Project-Based Vouchers provide rental assistance that is tied to a specific unit in a property contracted with the Housing Authority. The Housing Authority pays a portion of contracted rent in the form of a housing assistance payment to the owner on behalf of the Participant. The Participant pays the remaining rent, an amount that is roughly equivalent to 30% of their monthly income, and utility expenses.

What are the eligibility requirements to submit a pre-application for the "Elderly" (62+) Project-Based Waiting List?

To be eligible, all members of your household must be 62 years of age or older. Eligible pre-applicants will be placed on the "Elderly" PBV Waiting List in the order of date and time completed.

Is there a preference given to DeKalb County residents?

Yes. The HADC gives preference to residents who live or work in DeKalb County over those who do not. For example, if you live out of state and are #1 on the Waiting List, you will not be offered housing before someone who is already a resident of DeKalb County. If you move to or begin working in DeKalb County, make sure you update your application through the applicant portal to receive the preference.

Elderly (62+) Project-Based Voucher Waiting List FAQs

If I am currently on a Waiting List, how does the new list affect my status?

It does not. If you were on the HADC Tenant-Based Waiting List prior to the new waitlist opening, you will not lose your current position on the that waitlist.

What are the HADC's PBV Elderly Community options?

HADC currently maintains PBV Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) Contracts with several different communities in DeKalb County. In your pre-application, you will be required to select at least one or more of the available elderly community options and/or "first-available unit". As of March 31, 2018, HADC Elderly PBV Community Options with the exception of Columbia at Avondale Senior Property will be CLOSED.

Elderly (62+) Project-Based Voucher Waiting List FAQs

If selected for a Waiting List, do I automatically qualify for housing?

No. If selected, you will be contacted by mail for eligibility screening once your name gets to the top of the list. This screening process will determine if you meet the basic eligibility requirements of the program, including age, income, rental history, criminal background, and credit check.

What are the income limit requirements to be eligible for a Project-Based Voucher?

In order to qualify for a Project-Based Voucher, your household income must not exceed the very low (50%) average median income (AMI) for DeKalb County as determined by HUD annually. The current HUD Income Limits for DeKalb County are listed below:

2017 HUD INCOME LIMITS

Number in Household	50% AMI
1	$24,400
2	$27,900
3	$31,400

If selected for the Waiting List, when will I receive housing assistance?

As housing assistance becomes available, the HADC will contact you by mail for an eligibility screening appointment. The screening process will determine if you meet the basic eligibility requirements to qualify for the program. If you meet the program requirements, you will receive your project-based voucher.
